U. S. Silver Dollars.

787. 1794. A bold strong impression with the best milling I have ever seen on a coin of this date; on the reverse it is complete, perfect and sharp, and almost equally so on obverse. The impression is a most excellent one, every star and letter of legend perfect—the stars on the left, which are generally weak, are in this piece all strong—the head very good and date bold; the reverse equally bold, every letter of legend good, something quite unusual, the eagle very good. One of the best specimens of this date I have ever owned. Cost $125.

787a. 1794. Head and "Liberty," and most of the stars bold, as usual a few to the left are weak. The date is plain and distinct, but not as bold as other portions of the obverse. The reverse is strong, with exception of "States." A very fair, nearly good specimen of the rare date.

788. 1795. Flowing hair. Bold handsome impression. Very fine.

789. 1795. Another variety and still choicer. The obverse is very fine, the masses of the hair bold and sharp; the reverse only slightly worn on the eagle's breast.

790. 1795. Fillet head. Fine.

791. 1796. Small date. Very fine.

792. 1797. Six stars facing. Very good.

793. 1797. Seven stars facing. Very good. Nearly fine.

794. 1798. Fifteen stars. Small eagle reverse. A very good specimen of this rare variety.

795. 1798. Thirteen stars. Small eagle. Very good specimen of this variety.

796. 1799. Uncirculated. Very bold, the stars sharp. Brilliant mint lustre.

797. 1800. Extremely fine. A desirable piece.

798. 1801. Very fine.

799. 1802. Very fine.

800. 1802 over '01. Very fine. Bold.

801. 1803. Fine.

802. 1836. A proof that has been slightly circulated dulling the proof surface somewhat, but only showing the most trifling wear on most prominent parts.

803. 1841. Proof impression. Desirable.

804. 1850. Proof impression. Trifling pin nicks.

805 1853. Uncirculated. Some lustre.

806. 1854. Uncirculated. Bold sharp impression. A very handsome specimen of a date difficult to get in this condition. Rare.

807. 1854. Almost as handsome as the last. Nearly as bold, and showing only the most trifling wear. Rare.

808. 1855. Uncirculated. Fine surface.

809. 1855. Uncirculated. Mint bloom.

810. 1856. Uncirculated.

811. 1857. Barely touched by circulation. Proof surface.

823. 1794. Very good. Rare.

824. 1794. Good. Two slight depressions on head. Rare.

825. 1794. Obverse worn but date very plain; rev., better. Rare.

826. 1794. Very fair. Date weak but able to be made out. Rare.

827. 1795. Haseltine's Nos. 1 to 5, 7 to 12, 26. A collection of varieties, some very scarce, in fair to nearly fine condition. Average good or very good. 13 pcs.

828. 1795. Nearly fine.

829. 1796. Obverse is very good and bold, but has a name stamped on head and field; lightly scratched, the date bold and strong. The reverse nearly good. The rarest of the half dollars.

830. 1801. Very good and rare.

831. 1802. Very fine, the hair only slightly worn. There is a very trifling and scarcely perceptible flattening of raised milling above "RTY" of Liberty—it scarcely mars the coin, and is only mentioned to prevent any dispute as to condition. Cost Mr. Barclay $12.

832. 1802. Very good. Rare.

833. 1803. Large 3. Very fine and scarce.

834. 1804 under 1805. Fine and strong specimen of this rare variety.

Japanese Ivory Netsukes.

These curious carvings in ivory are nearly all idols or used in worship. They are rare even in Japan, and must have cost originally a very large sum of money. They are in the usual grotesque style, and 1½ to 3 inches high. I have seen similar specimens sell at $25 each; and though I do not think these will bring anything near that, they should all bring good prices.

Chinese and Japanese Coins.

Mr. Barclay's collection of coins of these countries is a remarkably fine one, and most of the pieces would be extremely difficult to duplicate. They are all very odd in design, scarcely ever offered, and very desirable.

1090. China. Razor-shaped coin of an early dynasty. Of immense size and great rarity. Very fine. 7¼ inches. Cost $15.

1091. 1123 B. C. Pu. Key-shaped, very curious, fine, very rare. 4x1½ in.

1092. 9 A. D. Emperor Wang Mang. Key-shaped coin, fine, very rare. 2¾x1 in.

1093. 9 A. D. Fork-shaped, fine. Very rare. 2¼x1 in.

1094. A remarkable coin. This and the following lot I have never seen equalled for size. Measures 5¼ inches in diameter and weighs 17 oz. Four large characters on obverse, seven smaller on reverse. Very fine and extremely rare.

1095. Similar coin and nearly as large, 4¾ inches in diameter, equally fine and rare. This pair, I believe, cost Mr. Barclay about $50.

1096. Another very odd coin. The obverse has a large, fat Chinaman around a square hole; curious bird, odd characters, etc. For want of time I am unable to place this piece, but it is very fine, desirable and rare. 3½ inches in diameter.

1097. 100 Cash. 4 characters on each side. Clean, light bronze, and very fine. 2¾ inches in diameter, ⅜ inch thick, weighs 6 oz. Very fine. Cost $6.

1098. 100 Cash. Similar, but in brass. Reign of Heen Fung. Very good.

1099. Coin of Happiness. Oblong, like Japan Tempo, but no hole; bell-shaped pendant at top, 4 characters on each side. Very fine and extra rare. 3 inches.

1100. A most remarkable Chinese coin, bird-shaped. Curiously designed, odd characters on each side. 3 inches in length. Very fine, and should be seen to be appreciated. Cost $10.

1109. Komahiki. Jap pulling a mule; rev., Jap in a boat, apparently a pumpkin to right. Very fine and rare. 2⅛ inches.

1110. Korin-Miya-sen. Fat Jap, and a Jap fishing. In the curious shape of a trefoil. Very fine, thick, and rare. 2½x1¾ inches.

1111. Similar coin, with fat Jap and the same fisherman, on a goblet-shaped pedestal. Very fine, thick, and rare. 2¼x2 inches.

1112. Miasen. Trefoil shape, same design as last, also fat Jap in relief. Fine and rare. 2½x1¾ inches.

1113. Saruhi-ku-kuma-sen. Similar to last, but only two coins and two Japs in relief, both on stands. Fine and rare. 2x1⅞ inches.

1114. Curious wheel-shaped coin; the centre, of cash size, has a Jap and mule; 8 spokes to wheel, and a rim of ⅜ inch. Very fine, odd and rare. 1⅞ inches.

1115. Another curious coin, Jap, bird, tree and running horse around a small circular hole, which on the reverse is the centre of a wheel design; very fine, odd and rare. 1⅞ inches.

1116. Two Jap priests, chain above, and performing dog below; rev., characters; very fine, odd and rare. 2½ inches.

1117. Ibesu-Jeni. Remarkable coin, with centre of fat Jap, set in a heart-shaped rim ¼ inch wide. Very fine, odd and rare. 2⅜x2 inches.

1118. Very odd circular coin, both sides filled with small characters—over 100 in all. Very good, and very rare. 2¼ inches.

1119. Seated group of 7 Japs, a very odd design. Size 18.

1120. Seated Jap with drawn sword. Very fine. Size 15.

1184. 1588. Julius. Spectacle Crown and Half Crown. Wild man with tree and horse, hour-glass and spectacles, leaning on a tablet. Fine and very rare. 2 pcs.

1185. 1589. Julius. Mortuary Crown. Bust to waist in armor with battle axe; rev., wild man with tree, hour-glass and spectacles, leaning on a tablet. Very fine and rare.

1186. 1599. Henry Julius. Pelican Crown. Pelican feeding her young; rev., arms with wild man to right. Very good and rare.

1187. 1602 to 1687. Balance of the collection, including some of the rarest known types of this remarkable coinage. All have one or two wild men on obverse. With scarcely an exception they are in fine or very fine condition, and no duplicates. Some 22 different dates and some of the odd types, as cross-legged wild man, wild man with tree across his knees, etc. This most desirable lot should have been catalogued separately. 25 Crowns, 3 Quarter Crowns. 28 pcs.

1188. 1643. Bell Crown. Portrait of Duke Augustus in armor. Rev., bell without a clapper. Very fine. Rare.

1189. 1643. Quarter Bell Crown. Same. Fine.

1190. 1643. Bell Crown. Similar to last but GLORIA on bell. Very fine. Rare.

1191. 1643. Bell Crown. Similar, but has clapper to bell and WAIDAR on bell. Very fine.

1192. 1643. Half Bell Crown. Similar to last. Fine.

1193. 1643. Bell Crown. Three hands pulling a bell, the city of Wolfenbuttel, with sun shining down on it, below. Fine and scarce.

A Few Rare Coins.

1194. 1802 Quarter Eagle. Very good.

1195. 1804 Dollar. This piece was purchased by Mr. Barclay when he commenced collecting, from a dealer for $300, with a guarantee of genuineness. It is certainly an alteration from 1801, though a most excellent one, the die closely corresponding with the genuine, and having the star close to the Y of LIBERTY. The coin itself is in very good condition, and the alteration shows excellent if not commendable workmanship.

1196. 1852 Dollar. A small hole above the head of Liberty has been skillfully plugged, otherwise the piece is in good condition and the date bold. Extremely rare.

1197. 1802 Half Dollar. A very fine specimen of this date. The hair lines bold, and all prominent. A desirable specimen.

1198. 1805 over 04 Half Dollar. One of the best specimens of this scarce over date I have met with. Extra fine, the hair lines unusually sharp, some original lustre on the reverse. With the exception that a few of the stars are weak, the piece could be described as barely circulated.

1199. 1808 over '07 Half Dollar. Uncirculated. Brilliant mint lustre.

1200. 1809 Half Dollar. Uncirculated. Brilliant mint lustre. In this condition rare.

1201. 1810, 1811, 1812, 1813, 1814 Half Dollars. Uncirculated. Brilliant mint lustre. A handsome lot. 5 pcs.

1202. (1659) Lord Baltimore Shilling. The greater portion of the obverse plain, though the profile is worn and somewhat scratched, and the legend indistinct at bottom. The reverse is better and very good, except a few letters at top. Very rare.

1203. 1796 Myddleton Token. "British settlements in Kentucky." Columbia welcomes the infants of Hope. Rev., Britannia seated amid the fallen emblems of Justice and Liberty Proof, slightly hay marked. Very rare.
